Scam: Safeguard

Jodhpur Doctor Loses ₹62.8 lakh in Trading scam!

A Jodhpur-based neurosurgeon, Dr. Tejpal Fidoda, lost ₹62.8 lakh in an online stock trading scam after being lured with promises of high returns. On January 3, he received a link to join the SCIATOP investment app and a WhatsApp group, where fraudsters posing as experts convinced him to invest through an "institutional account" instead of his personal demat account. Claiming affiliation with Standard Chartered Wealth Fund, they systematically withdrew his money and later falsely informed him that his funds were "frozen," pressuring him to deposit more to release them. Realizing the fraud, he filed an FIR at Bhagat Ki Kothi police station, and authorities are now investigating. The police are currently working to track down the fraudsters involved in the scam.

The police are actively investigating the case, and efforts are underway to trace the culprits. Meanwhile, authorities urge citizens to stay vigilant, as such scams have been on the rise.

STORY TIME

THIS DAY IN HISTORY: CHHATRAPATI SHIVAJI MAHARAJ JAYANTI

19th February shivaji maharaj jayanti made headlines by the popular movie "chavva" as a tribute . In Mumbai, the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Terminus (CST) was illuminated with vibrant saffron and white lights, paying tribute to the great Maratha warrior. Processions with traditional Lezim dancers and dhol-tasha echoed through the streets.

This year's celebrations had an added significance with the recent release of "Chhaava" on February 14, starring Vicky Kaushal as Chhatrapati Sambhaji Maharaj. The film brought renewed attention to his military prowess, resistance against the Mughals, and ultimate sacrifice. As the day concluded with patriotic chants and glowing tributes, the spirit of Shivaji Maharaj's courage and vision remained deeply felt across Maharashtra.
